

Contract/Subcontract Administration & Management

Excell provides Contract Administration services to assist the Client's staff with management of complex contractual functions. Excell provides immediate staff to handle backlogs and situations involving:

- Notice correspondence
- Change order review
- Analysis and Negotiation
- Schedule and "earned value" analysis, including updates and revisions
- Identification of changed conditions and other events that lead to claims
- Conforming Amendments to the base contract
- Scope Creep Identification Resolution

Excell provides strategies and consultations relative to performance under the Client's particular Contract to avoid and manage disputes while reserving rights for future recovery.

Follow Us:

Excell has been saving projects, companies and careers since 1983. From its beginning, Excell rapidly evolved into a leader in the Contract Disputes / Claim Avoidance arena with few equals.
